My short term memory is getting so bad I am afraid I shall forget things, if I don't confirm and write them down. So these two things for you; a question and a comment. RSVP

I remember you told me which I had forgotten that Edna gave you your first money for the "land"?? house. Was it when you were living in a house in the village somewhere, or later??
And how much was it???? One benefit from your Sunday school class I would say!!!!!!!!!!!!

Bud says (he knows the most genealogy--has a copy of a book about the Ky feuds, and more about Grandpa and Grandma as his family lived with Grandma for awhile when his dad " doc" the redheaded bro. was out of work Aunt Martha had red hair too. He said yest on the phone that Grandma said her Dad George Washington Stamper told her he was 1/8 th Cherokee. so you figure the math(certainly not 100%:>))
Bud has written the Cherokee Nation to see if they can verify any of the Rayburn-Stamper data. You remember that BARbara Kingsolvers grandma was Grandma Stamper.

love Mom

For Sam and Maya: Edna Hudler was what we used to call a feisty "old maid" in the church who was a patient of Daves. She lived to 103 or so. She was diane's church school teacher.
Bud is a cousin almost my age , living near his children in Wisconsin , of the family left motherless when their Mom with a new baby died of pneumonia in pre-Penicillin days:<
So my mother took over the family(sorta) who lived a half block away and struggled to help raise them with their overwhelmed Dad.

So much for Rayburn history etc.
