Hello Sam:

Don't know how much I can add. Over time I will look at the links in the note you sent. I have not entered geneology work for about 10 years. I was interested in it about 10 years ago, websites and the research sites were just starting out. I leave it to others to fully develop the ancestry that I will proudly and happily read.

I did look at the wiki site you have for Aunt Maude and just a couple of notations --

You have May and Mae and I don't know which one is correct.

In the comments that Uncle Charles wrote, a typo crept in during copy, or something -- the brother that Uncle Charles mentions is WILBUR, not William. And, Wilbur is my dad.

Is it your grandmother who lives in Tucson?

Best to you,
Ella Sue
