Hi Sam - Sunday morning is not my freest time to work on this but basically I probably do not have the birthplaces - only dates and only for some of these. It takes a lot of brain power to sort out this stuff - sequence in one source may be reversed in another etc.!!! But I have filled in a few more tidbits for you - I didn't answer before because the list was too long and I wanted to give you the sources instead of researching it myself - oh well!

I am cc ing this email to Ann and David as David may have things I do not if he feels like hunting it up for you.

I thought i already told you about the first few on your list but...

Hey - have a good day. Love, mother
