Hi Sam, Mom,

This photo is of the award ACAS gave me at the African Studies Association meeting in San Francisco. It came with a nice speech saying I had been nominated by several people, and with a $500 check. Bud Day was an activist, very active in ACAS & other groups working on Southern Africa, somewhat older than me who died of a stroke a few years ago. His widow Carol Thompson lives & teaches in Flagstaff.

Bill

P.S. Mom, if the photo is too large for your system, I can try to shrink it and send another version. Sam, you will note that they got the photo from your website. For accuracy, it was December 1988, in Harara Zimbabwe, & taken by Cathy! Which is quite a coincidence in that I visited Bud (& Carol Thompson, his wife) in Harare earlier in the 1980s.
