

From: "Sue Minter" <suewminter@webtv.net>
Subject: Re: bigrayburn
Date: 16 November 2006 14:36:20 GMT+00:00
To: Samuel Minter <abulsme@abulsme.com>

Probablhy LN Rayburn

cousin Bud was named after him, oldest of the famiy of whose mother died when he as in wheeler school. She just hadhad a baby and got pne;umonia. They lived half blovck away on Powell and my mother tried to help with housekeepers bud dad was

James Tinsley one of 2 red heads in the famiy of Mary ALICE. Other was aunt Martha. Hope you all are fine. I am fighting a sinus infection so don't feel much likeco,municating right now. love Ama

-----Original Message-----

From: Samuel Minter
Sent: Tuesday, November 14, 2006 11:37 PM
To: Sue Minter
Cc: William Minter, Susan Minter
Subject: bigrayburn

I found this picture labeled "BigRayburn" but not saying which one. Would this be Lewis Napoleon Rayburn and Mary Alice Stamper (Rayburn)?? (Grandma's Grandparents on her mother's side.) Anybody know for sure? I have a much later picture of Mary Alice on http://wiki.abulsme.com/Mary_Alice_Stamper and it could be her. The picture I have of Lewis Napoleon Rayburn is so blurry as to be unrecognizable (it was a scan of a photocopied picture in which he was small to begin with). http://wiki.abulsme.com/Lewis_Napoleon_Rayburn