

From: "Sue Minter" <suewminter@webtv.net>
Subject: Re: New Deepest Relative
Date: May 1, 2006 16:01:11 GMT+00:00
To: Samuel Minter <abulsme@abulsme.com>

some of should have a whole anderson book which harriet made us get!! all of tyger jims connections: reunion in SC every 5 years; and a computer update on descendents done for awhile by a couple including my children and some of theirs.

I was born in Central City, Ky at home: a small coal mining town. My dad Wm Maynard had a first job driving mules in the mines!! then worked in a clothing store for his brother-in-law(an older sister, Erie ann(antilo), then secretary at a business college.(we were in Hartford conn for my very young years. then Dad bought Lockyears business college in Eville which served the tristate; and on retirement did the Dale Carnegie courses(good friend of Dale). really a rags to riches US story.... We all applaud your research. Yes, it is a detective story. one cousin in Ky is Raeburn instead of Rayburn; and there are legal liasons in the cherokee story and "outside the sheets" out of wedlock; and several Pewter Jims in this story.

you sound ok in the rainy place and your job. I think Maya has had toomuch of rain but has a daylight anti=depression lamp she uses in the bathroom in the morning!!!

much love Grandma