The one who knew WR much better than I is my sister in law(love) elizabeth or Lib Minter. About 96, born in China, she and John worked in china for years until the Japanese came in. she was in the family a lot longer than I. dad minter was son of a Plantation owner in SC and mother minter used to accuse him of being the "upper crust" of souther society in contrast to her more humble parents. He was brunette(do you have the pic with the dark eyes??) my Dave baby of the family took after him. he was beloved pastor in Austin for 25 years when it was the southern Presbyterian church. He and his wife had John and Dave's afam friends in as guests at a time when it would've caused a revolution in the church and in the society they were in!! He retired to Palestine Tx to a smaller church for his last years. We took your Dad to be baptized by him when he was an infant and Dad in his last years.

Lib is in a retirement home like this doesn't see too well, but could talk on the phone sometime512-407-8396. She would have a lot more of that history than I. I can alert her you might call if you wish . love Grandma when does your family join you????
