I think I told you something about my dads dad the little sheriff of CentralCity Ky. somewhere I have a picture of a small but fierce looking man in his uniform. He was known for his "smarts" in catching the crooks, had his bloodhounds trained to eat from nobodys hand but his so they wouldn't be poisoned!!
MyMom Maude Mae wouldn't let me bring a centralcity paper when we drove through there going back to see the old log cabin she grew up in with GrandpaLNand Mary Alice rayburn. Thought it didn't do him justice or something!!strange logic... His wife and he I never knew as they were gone before I was born in that same Central City at home. Sue Wootton she was and somewhere I have her picture looking a lot like the other grandma with her long dress and full apron over it. (I was named after both grandmas you see Mary Sue but dropped the Mary in college as I didn't afeel like a Mary.) Diane just left on the shuttle to the airport at 4 am and wont beback hom until late aft. plane to pHoenicwaitplane to Mexico Ccity wait but to Cuernavaca where Juan will meet her. The men Juan and Jony will be glad to see her home again!!She was tremendous help to me many errands. bday late lunch on Friday. but since this maclear degeneration has started on my eyes I don't write too long at a time....and alas, losing some oxygen: 1500 on my breathing machine I could manage: few weeks before my 89th I can only it 1000 barely which makes me shortwinded and slows me down considerably. More another time Grandma

Is there anything else you can remember about your grandfather Wootton? Or your other three grandparents for that matter...
