I see no problems but you imply we went to Tanzania in January of 1974 which I would have to look up - can't remember. Maybe your father told you. Sounds good.\

Me: very approximate

Birth to 8 months - Versailles, Ohio

8 months - 6 years Hardwick, VT

6 years - 21 years - Westminster, VT (last 4 were 8-9 months a year at Oberlin, Ohio but I counted Westminster as home.) (I wasn't home summers either - always had a job somewhere away from home. After freshman and sophomore years I was leading vacation church schools in tiny communities around Vermont - two weeks per community - usually places where the church was only open those two weeks of the year. After junior and senior years I was in Irvington-on-Hudson, NY working on staff of Irvington House in the section with children with bad damage from rheumatic fever - inner city NYC kids mostly with heart disease and chorea etc - but still kids who needed summer programming when their school year ended - More than one died those summers and Angelina Rosado aged 5 with a very enlarged heart was my favorite)

1963-66 NYC at Union Seminary

1966-69 Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania

1969-1969 3-4 months on the lower east side of Manhattan about 23rd St and 3rd ave or thereabouts in a sublet railroad apartment

1969-73 Madison, WI

1973-73 - Durham, NC (like you)

1974-75 - Bagamoyo, Tanzania (January makes sense as that is when the school year began)

1975-1976 - Ribauè, Mozambique (yes, we arrived about 4-6 weeks before Independence Day which lasted a week - official day June 25, 1975)

1976-1982 Durham, NC

1982-1983 Indianapolis, IN

1983-1984 Durham, NC

1984-1990 Frederick, MD

1990-1993 Maputo, Mozambique

1993-1994 (9 months at Howlands) Southampton, MA

1994-1996 (16 months) Greenfield, MA

1996-1997 (13 months) Amherst, MA

1997 - 2006 ( 9 years 5 months) Westfield, MA

2006 - present Bellville, OH

- 2006-Present: Bellevue, WA

(This only counts "primary residence" and does not show the various times when I lived in one place but visited another for summers or weekends.)

If I got anything wrong above, please correct me...

But the main point of this email... what would the similar list for you look like?
