HI - When you come, do you want to visit the cemetery where my grandparents and father and probably others are buried? In Versailles - the town where I was born? Greenville - the town where my family lived when my father died? Covington? All are near each other but they are also all north of the airport and the best time would be to go straight away on your arrival. The drawback is that you would be exhausted at that time! I could probably also just take you straight home and we could go later that day or sometime on Friday. And of course it is not necessary if you are not interested. Just thought you might be because of the genealogy stuff.

Did you remember this week that you once applied to and visited Virginia Tech and actually liked it quite a bit. I did. Such a senseless tragedy - but then an awful lot of tragedies ARE senseless.

Hope all is well with all of you. Love, mother
