I guess some of the memories will inevitably be dark. I used to know the exact date as Coxes and Minters would call each other on MM day(mass meeting). but I will always remember going to Tchula School to pick up the kids after a peewee football game or such. Coming from various directions were adults heading there too . Gene and DAve had been notified to appear before a Citizens council meeting at the school house.(A white collar KluKluxKlan formed first in Greenwood this was only the third or so meeting: to oppose the integration of schools ordered by the supreme court. What a long evening Lindsey and I spent waiting for our husbands return. The verdict of the aroused crowd was"Leave the state: with only 3 or 4 brave souls voting no or leaving. They heard tapes of 4 frightened af boys who had yelled sometning at the school bus our kids were in...a long story told by Sam Franklin in his story of the Farms: or in Rev. Will Campbell's book "Providence" about the history of the square mile where we were located where details of that night were described.
