Yes, I was 85!!!! Lou and Jetti took me for a bday dinner at the AZ Inn which is a local natl monument! lovely SW hotel still in the family of a woman who created an industry of making furniture for unemployed men during the depression. She started this Inn and all sorts of VIPs stayed there: Eleanor Roosevelt, etcetc Steward Udall when he comes to town etcetc. lovely grounds and flowers: we are on patio, and Lou Ames and I devoured a baked Alaska for dessert!!!!

The Bruwers came by and offered to take me to an English place for supper but I begged for a rain check.

And Diane made the montage (by scanning I guess: she said you didn't need a digital camera: I have lot of ignorance about such things).

So gaining another year was not too bad.

Did I tell you ever that Jetti and I have been friends for 80 years???? She sat on her trike (a year younger) as I went off to kiindergardten and wanted to get to know me. We went to same college etc. Then they bought a roomy apt. here for winter living when Jettis aunt died. They have cabins in Nantucket in the summer; and she has a starring role in theater groups both places!!

Best get back to bed soon. love Abuelita
